

Job Advertisement
Evaluation Expert to engage in short- to mid-term assignments pertaining to the “Service Framework Contract for the Provision of Evaluation and Evaluation-related Services to the Commission”
Description	Together with The Evaluation Partnership Ltd (“TEP”), Particip has recently been contracted by the European Commission Directorate General Budget to provide evaluation services of various kinds for two Lots of a Service Framework Contract. The duration of the contract is from 14.12.2006 to 13.12.2010, involving frequent short- to mid-term evaluation assignments. We are constantly looking for experienced Evaluators.
Reference Contracts	Lot 2: “Provision of studies of a prospective nature” - The main objective consists of assisting the Commission services by producing prospective evaluation studies explicitly required by the existing rules and legislation, namely: ex ante evaluation, impact assessment, evaluation of pilot projects and preparatory actions. Lot 3: “Provision of external evaluation studies of an interim and ex post nature” - The main objective of this lot is to carry out mainly low scale, high priority interim and ex post evaluation studies of programmes and/or policies. These studies also include, where appropriate for the decision-making process, prospective elements See also General Opportunities of Particip’s website
Requirements
General experience	Extensive experience in the field of European Commissions’ evaluation procedures and methodologies; including evaluation experience of the strategies, policies and activities of various EC Directorates General. Interested candidates should have a minimum of 5 years experience in evaluation of EC funded projects.
Sectorial experience	Relating to the fields of the EC’s various Directorates General (incl. Agriculture, Education and Culture, Employment, Enlargement, External Relations, Humanitarian Aid, Legal Services, Research, Trade, etc.).
Regional experience	Extensive experience within the EU25
Contacts	Should you feel that your expertise matches the above-mentioned profile and you would like to work with Particip for the European Commission as an independent consultant, please feel free to submit your CV in EC format to staff@particip.de . Please refer to the respective contract name and lot number (i.e. DGBudget-Lot2/3).