

ACEE
(Job advertisement)

ACEE is a Bureau-level institution subordinate to SEPA, which is in charge of organizing the activities of assessing environmental assessment reports both for plans and significant development and construction projects, and offering consultancy service of the 'SEPA SEA Guideline'; conducting research on strategic environmental assessment concerning some significant economic policies and plans and making suggestions; initiating research on environmental assessment techniques and generating environmental assessment techniques and technical guideline; studying the information and techniques of impacts predicting; presiding the registration and management work for Environmental Impact Assessment Engineer Certificate; ensuring all the environmental assessors hold the certificates and organizing the further training; taking charge of qualifying all the environmental assessment organisations; offering consultancy service for all the environmental assessment organisations in China; checking and accepting the conformation of conducting ecological construction projects that have been examined and approved by the State to the policy of 'the water saving measures shall be designed, constructed and put into service along with main part of construction projects', and making assessment of the final report.

In performing the second duty of 'conducting research on strategic environmental assessment concerning some significant economic policies and plans and making suggestions', ACEE is going to co-operate with other related academic organisations to set up 'National Centre for Strategic Environmental Assessment, SEPA & CAS', the main responsibilities and functions are including:

1. Conducting environmental impacts researches for national and regional major policies and plans; making environmental assessment of the important economic and technical policies, development plans and important economic development plans; compiling assessment report for the reference of decision making
2. Conducting researches on main environmental protection subjects presented along with the economic and social development and offering policy suggestions
3. Tracking, collecting, analysing, organizing and reporting to SEPA the important generalized information and trends for the reference of making decisions
4. Compiling and publishing 'National SEA report'
5. Compiling and publishing 'National SEA case studies' series.
6. Setting up 'National SEA' website
7. Initiating all forms of academic conferences and workshops
8. Holding all forms of national/international cooperation and implementing the research projects

In preparation of setting up 'National Centre for Strategic Environmental Assessment, SEPA & CAS', the Research Team is going to be set up in advance with the positions as follows:

1. Senior project manager: 1

Requirement:

- Age: under 35 years old; holding an PhD or above in a relevant discipline
- With more than five- year relevant work or research experience
- Having done some research on SEA; with comprehensive understanding of national policies or SEA; are capable of conducting research and projects independently
- Preference is given to those with the policy study experience or SEA experience

2. Junior project manager: 2

Requirement:

- Age: under 30 years old; holding an Master's Degree or above in a relevant discipline
- With more than three- year relevant work or research experience
- Having done some research on SEA; with comprehensive understanding of national policies or SEA; are capable of conducting research and projects independently
- Preference is given to those with the policy study experience or SEA experience

Contact:

Jingming Ren

E-mail: renjm@acee.org.cn

Tel: 84910838

Linghui Kong

E-mail: eiazhaopin@163.com

Tel: 84915325

Address:

ACEE

8 Da Yang Fang, Bei Yuan, Beijing

100012

Website: http:// www.eia.net.cn ; <http://www.china-eia.com>

To Apply: please send your CV and relevant research results list and copies to the email boxes above.